

COREY PENDLETON
CLASS OF 2002

Reverend Corey A. Pendleton is an educator, school administrator, minister, published author, and community advocate whose career has been defined by education, service, faith, and leadership. A proud alumnus of Tallahassee State College, he currently serves as Dean of Students at Pine View Elementary School and has spent more than 21 years serving students as a teacher, mentor, administrator, and advocate.

Pendleton earned an Associate of Arts in General Studies from TSC, a Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education from Flagler College, and completed graduate-level legal studies in Education Law at Shepard Broad College of Law. His ministry and community work have included evangelism, grief support, pastoral care, domestic-violence awareness, community outreach, and service to vulnerable individuals and families. He has also served on Tallahassee's Domestic Violence Coordinating Council and is the author of Loving Her Like Christ and It's Not About Time: A Biblical and Psychological Journey Through Grief. His induction into the Hall of Fame honors a lifetime of learning, service, and commitment to creating opportunities for others.
