

DANIEL J. RENNINGER
CLASS OF 2010

Daniel J. Renninger is a Tallahassee entrepreneur, restaurateur, and community leader whose businesses reflect a commitment to excellence, innovation, and investing in people. He is the owner of The Huntsman in Tallahassee and The Huntsman 30A in Panama City Beach and operates four small businesses employing 85 individuals.

Under Renninger's leadership, The Huntsman has earned recognition from the Michelin Guide, bringing statewide and national attention to Tallahassee's culinary scene. He is also known for his employee-centered approach, offering robust benefits and one year of paid maternity and paternity leave, an uncommon commitment within the hospitality industry.

A supporter of Tallahassee State College, Renninger partnered with the TSC Foundation through The Huntsman's participation in Cleaver & Cork, serving as a featured restaurant for both the Progressive Cocktail Party and the annual Food & Wine Festival. His involvement helped showcase the region's growing culinary talent while supporting scholarships and student success initiatives.

Beyond his business achievements, Renninger supports numerous community organizations, including United Way of the Big Bend, First Tee, and the Humane Society. Through entrepreneurship, philanthropy, and community engagement, he continues to make a meaningful impact on the quality of life and economic vitality of the Big Bend region.
