

Brian Pearson

Brian Pearson grew up in Tallahassee and attended Florida High School, Tallahassee Community College, and Lively Law Enforcement Academy. In 1995, the Leon County Sheriff's Office hired him as a deputy. He served in the Uniform Patrol, the K9 unit, vice/narcotics, and violent crimes before being promoted to sergeant over the K9 unit. He was again promoted to lieutenant, serving as FTO Commander, watch commander, and CID LT over financial, property crimes, and auto crimes task force, eventually returning to vice/narcotics.

After 26 years of service, Brian retired to work with his wife, selling real estate at Pearson Realty. In addition to his real estate work, Brian was approached to begin training gun detection dogs for the Leon County School Board to assist in threat deterrence and prevention. Since the advent of this program, he has trained and provided dogs for schools in Leon, Jefferson, Madison, and Taylor counties.
